Town of Colonial Beach Launches New GIS Website

COLONIAL BEACH, VA, December 1, 2023 — The Town of Colonial Beach today announced the launch of its new Geographic Information System (GIS) website. The new website provides residents, businesses, and visitors with easy access to a wealth of information about the town, including maps, property data, and zoning information.

“We are excited to launch our new GIS parcel viewer website,” said India Adams-Jacobs Town Manager of Colonial Beach. “This new website will make it easier for our residents, businesses, and visitors to find the information they need regarding zoning and parcel information after many years of work towards this effort”, said Mayor Robin Schick.

The new GIS website is a powerful tool that can be used for a variety of purposes, such as:

- Finding property information, such as tax maps and assessor’s data
- Viewing zoning information
- Identifying public facilities, such as schools, parks, and libraries
- Planning for future development

The Town of Colonial Beach is committed to providing its residents, businesses, and visitors with the information they need to make informed decisions. The new GIS website is a valuable tool that will help the town achieve this goal. “I am excited to see this launch. Parcel and zoning information is the core to all GIS systems and a great leap into the GIS world for the Town of Colonial Beach”, said Dan Armstrong, GIS Director.

ABOUT COLONIAL BEACH

The Town of Colonial Beach, known as the Playground of the Potomac, is located at the northern tip of Virginia's Northern Neck, and is one of the few remaining small seaport towns on the Potomac River. This beloved waterfront town with less than 4000 residents, and just a 65 mile drive from Washington, DC, enjoys a unique location nestled between the Potomac River on the East and the waters of Monroe Bay on the West. Its sandy beaches and marinas on Monroe Bay have attracted water sporting enthusiasts for over a century. Fishing, sailing, boating, swimming and crabbing are just a few of the water activities enjoyed here, making it a great place to visit. Also a very historical area with a rich presidential history, Colonial Beach and neighboring Westmoreland County happen to be the birthplace of Presidents George Washington and James Monroe - memorialized at the James Monroe Birthplace Park & Museum and George Washington Birthplace National Monument.
